'SOME' COMPANY NOW AT THE ODEON

Douthitt-Wilson Troupe Splendid and It is Drawing Big Houses.

Large audiences are greeting the Douthitt-Wilson Musical Comedy Company at the Odeon, and, judging from the applause and hearty laughter, the show is thoroughly enjoyed by everybody.

The opening bill, "The Girl from Milwaukee," is entirely different from any of the musical comedies that has been furnished with a vehicle different in many ways from all her previous efforts, the role, however, afforded her a splendid opportunity of demonstrating her many emotional talents. In casting Miss Barriscale for the title role of "The Mating," Director Ince surrounded her with an exceptionally strong cast, headed by Lewis J. Cody, erstwhile Broadway star, in the role of "Bullet Dick," Ames, college hero and gridiron star.

Eld Markey, who has appeared in several Mutual Masterpictures, por-

Chorus of the Douthitt Wilson Troupe, Now Playing at the Odeon Theater. have been seen here. The show has a very clever plot, which hinges around two very funny Irishmen and a girl from Milwaukee. During the action of the play some very complicated situations are worked up to a rip-roaring climax.

The company is an evenly-balanced one and each member handles his part in a capable manner. The chorus girls are pretty, and what is more, they can sing and dance in the most approved style. The songs and dances are all new and a complete change of costumes is made for each number.
A great feature of the show is its cleanliness, as there is not a suggestive line or action in the entire show. The two leading women, Misses Tessie Wilson and Flora Jordan, are extremely clever and their songs are of the kind that catch on, which makes a combination hard to beat as a musical comedy.

Rennold Wolf and Channing Pollock have written another musical play, which the Frohman company will produce.

Bessie Barriscale, whose triumphs in Mutual Masterpictures, produced by the New York Motion Picture Corporation are proving her one of the greatest emotional actresses of the screen, is the star of "The Mating," a five-part Mutual Masterpicture, produced under the personal supervision of Director Thomas H. Ince, which is showing today at the Orpheum theater.

C. Gardiner Sullivan, author of "The Reward" and several other of these feature photodramas de luxe, in "The Mating" deviates somewhat from the themes of his other great plays, but in true Sullivan style furnishes a story which is unique in plot and dramatic effect.

How You Can Have 'Naturally Curly' Hair

If you will forswear the curling iron and follow the simple plan here suggested, you will be surprised beyond words to see not only the beautiful curl, but the soft number and lively lustre, your hair will acquire. The plan—merely to apply to the hair before retiring, a little pure salmester (in liquid form), near a clean tooth brush for the purpose. The most effective way is to divide the hair into strands, moistening each strand separately from root to tip.
The delightful wavy effect in evidence in the morning will suggest to any stranger that your hair is "naturally curly." The effect will last a considerable time and if you get a few ounces of liquid salmester from your druggist you will have a supply for months. This, by the way, will leave no sticky or greasy trace and cannot harm hair or scalp in any way. The hair will be quite manageable at all times, no matter how you do it up.

"Today," the vital and vivid drama of New York life by George Broadhurst, is being presented by the Lewis-Oliver Players at the Palace theater this week and they opened last night to an audience that tested the capacity of this popular play house.

It is beautifully produced, wonderfully well acted and immensely strong, but it is far more than this, for no one can see it without being forced to think deeply, the lesson it teaches being compelling and of immense value.

Jack Lewis has appeared in several good parts since he opened here a few weeks ago, but he was never seen to better advantage than last night.
Miss Edna Grandin as the wife was very clever and carried big scenes over in a way that would do credit to many of our dollar and a half stars.
She wore several handsome gowns.

Miss Neida Gibson, also appeared to good advantage, and her gowns are about the best ever seen on the Palace stage. Miss Nana Delan and Fred Beaudoin, as the father and

OPERATION ON A MAN HAS PECULIAR EFFECT

Has Appendix Cut Out and Result is That His Sight is Restored.

BRIDGEPORT, Ct., Nov. 16.—An operation for appendicitis performed on Ralph Von Hacht, aged 23, of Milford, has resulted in the restoring to the young man of the sight of one eye which had been blind since his birth.

The operation was performed by Dr.
Francis Campbell and members of the staff of Trinity hospital, New York.
When the physicians removed Von Hacht's appendix several weeks ago, they had no idea that they were going to restore his sight. It seems, however, that the appendix had been resting against one of the large nerves that form part of the system which connects with the optic nerves.

After the operation, Von Hacht for the first time in his life distinguished darkness from light with his blind eye. Soon he began to see objects with the eye. He was warned by the doctors not to exert his "blind" eye too much, but to allow it to grow stronger gradually. He said that the "blind" eye was nearly as good as the other eye.

Farmer's 'Watchdog' Has Only Two Legs

YPSILANTI, Mich., Nov. 16.—When you walk into the yard of John C.
Chalmers, a farmer of Pittsfield township, and look around for the watchdog, you don't see one. But you will hear a rooster crowing loudly to give the alarm of your intrusion, and you are likely to be attacked by him with all the "pep" and ferocity of the onslaught of a bulldog.

Night or day, he is "on the job," and no four legged watchdog has anything on him in the peculiar line of activity he has apparently chosen for himself.

Cecil B. DeMille, director general of the Lasky company, has completed the first of the "Chimmie Fadden" productions in which Victor Moore is to star.
It is to be known as "Chimmie Fadden Out West."

"Emmy of Stork's Nest," a five part photoplay based upon the novel of the same name by J. Breckenridge Ellis, is today's feature offering at the Robinson Grand. In this production Mary Miles Minter, the charming young actress whose brief work on the screen has won such popular favor, is seen in the stellar role.

Tomorrow, Donald Brian, the distinguished theatrical star, will be seen in his motion picture debut for the Jesse L. Lasky Company in "The Voice in the Fog," a photodramatization of Harold McGrath's famous novel. In the cast supporting Mr. Brian, are such well known artists as Adda Gleason, Frank Connor, George Gebhardt, Ernest Joy, Florence Smythe and other members of the Lasky all-star company.

One of the early productions in which little Mary Miles Minter will appear in the stellar role is "The Green Witch," a picturization of the novel by J. Breckenridge Ellis. The story is laid in the Ozark mountains of Missouri and brims with colorful and thrilling incident, to which Miss Minter's winsome beauty lends added charm.

Dealing with the questions of patriotism, the Kalem company's new drama of diplomatic intrigue, "The Night at the Embassy Ball" strikes a note of interest in the present country-wide discussion of "hyphenated" Americanism. This production shows how the fate of nations may hang on such a small thing as the blowing up of an automobile tire, and the delay that results.

The sun valve, invented by Gustaf Dalen, of Stockholm, will be used in connection with the lights on the Panama canal. The sun both lights and extinguishes the light. The inventor of the sun valve recently received the Nobel prize for this clever device.

Of a Pennsylvania Couple is Kept a Secret for Four Years

LEWISTON, Pa., Nov. 16.—Foster Snyder and wife, of this place, have just made it known that they are man and wife, although they had been united in marriage for four years. The old saying that a woman cannot keep a secret is exploded by this announcement.

Mr. Snyder and wife, who was Jeannette Bingaman, before her marriage, were looked upon as lovers, and even their closest friends had no idea that they were man and wife until Mr.
Snyder so announced a few days ago.

They were married in New York state while on a trip in 1911.

Mrs. Snyder is fond of hunting and has taken out a license here for several years. She is fearless in the woods and with her husband spent last week hunting in Snyder county, where they killed much small game.

BURIED ALIVE

In Box of Tar is Rooster, Which "Stays Stuck" until He is Beheaded.

LANSDALE, Pa., Nov. 16.—Pete, the prize rooster and pet belonging to John U. Longaker, was executed at sunrise. And spying was not his offense.

Pete met death as a result of trying to climb on the roof with some other chickens, but not being as husky as the rest, slipped and fell into a box of soft pitch. The pitch hardened, and in the morning Mr. Longaker found his bird in such agony, molded in the tar, only his head sticking out.

An effort to crack the pitch failed, so the rooster was beheaded.
